years later, and only upon threats of exposure.

The Instance referred to is that of City Marshal Bernard.

Another charge against Mr. Palitscheck is that in February, 1839, he received $913.75, due to a Mrs. Fannie-Danziger, living in Hungary, as a benefit from the Moses Mendelssohn Lodge No. 34 of the L. O. O. F., of which he son, Sigmund Danziger, who died, hat heen a member, and that this money was paid over to the woman more than two years later, and after baving deducted $130 of the amount.

An effort will be made, it is said, by Mrs. Schnitzer to compel Mr. Palitschek to refund these $130 to the woman.

In a letter to Mr. Ugro, Mr. Palitschek admits having obtained the $100 from Marshal Bernard, and says that he did not pay it over sooner because Bernard had refused to accept it upon Palitschek's repeated offers.
